

The Geological Society of Washington

founded 1893

WEDNESDAY, March 23, 2022

MEETING § 1576

***This is a hybrid meeting- virtual participants may join via Zoom*****

Note that the meeting will be “locked” 15 min. after the formal program begins and new attendees will only be allowed in between talks.

In-person attendees will be required to show proof of vaccination at the door.

ANNE POMMIER, Earth and Planets Laboratory, Carnegie Institution of Science

The interior of terrestrial planets and moons as revealed by their electrical properties

ROBERT POIRIER, USGS

Paleo-perspectives on Future Sea Level Projections for the U.S. Atlantic Coast

JAN HELLMANN, Dept. of Geology, University of Maryland

Fractionation and mixing processes in the early Solar System inferred from tellurium isotope variations in chondrites

TALKS WILL BE 20 MINUTES w/ QUESTIONS TO FOLLOW

---

John Wesley Powell Auditorium,
Cosmos Club, 2170 Florida Ave NW
Refreshments 7:30 pm; Meeting 8:00 pm

Zoom link active at 7:30 p.m. EDT for socializing

For additional details please visit:
www.gswweb.org